

February 2012 Table of Contents

- Three States to Require Insurers to Disclose Climate-Change Response Plans. Felicity Barringer. New York Times. February 1, 2012.
- Woman wins small-claims suit over Honda Civic Hybrid. Associated Press. Yahoo! News. February 2, 2012.
- “Global Warming Has Stopped”? How to Fool People Using “Cherry Picked” Climate Data. Peter Gleick. Forbes. February 5, 2012.
- Super Bowl Tackles Climate Change. Tim Wall. Discovery News. February 3, 2012.
- Scientists melt mystery over ice caps and sea levels. David Fogarty. Yahoo! News. February 8, 2012.
- Understanding the Global Warming Debate. Warren Meyer. Forbes. February 9, 2012.
- Satellites Help Scientists Quantify Ice Melt and Sea-Level Rise. Lauren Morello. Scientific American. February 9, 2012.
- Post-Solyndra audit calls for changes to loan program. Aamer Madhani. USA Today. February 10, 2012.
- EU Airlines Carbon Tax Stirs Resentment. AFP. Discovery News. February 13, 2012.
- More new homes conserve energy. Wendy Koch. USA Today. February 15, 2012.
- ‘Heartlandgate’: Climate Beliefs Don’t Hinge on Leaked Documents. Stephanie Pappas. Yahoo! News. February 23, 2012.
- Peak Oil Leads to 30% Increase in Green Energy Investments in 2011, Reports Stock Detectives. PRWeb. Yahoo! News. February 23, 2012.
- How reducing emissions could lower your tax bill. Sandra Block. USA Today. February 27, 2012.