

November 2010 Table of Contents

- World Energy Outlook 2010: Executive Summary. International Energy Agency. 2010.
- Fixing the Mess We Made. Emily Talen. Journal of the American Planning Association. November 2010.
- California Reveals Terms of Nation's First Economy-Wide CO2 Cap-and-Trade System. Debra Kahn. Climatewire, Scientific American. November 1, 2010.
- California Cuts Carbon in Bid to Spur Clean Technology Boom. David Biello. Scientific American. November 3, 2010.
- World Bank Struggles with Coal Power. The Wall Street Journal Blog. November 4, 2010.
- Obama Drops Plan to Limit Global Warming Gases. Associated Press. USA Today.com. November 4, 2010.
- Carbon Dioxide Outburst Spurred Warming 40 Million Years Ago. Dan Vergano. USA Today.com. November 4, 2010.
- We Must Act Decisively to Save Our World. Harrison Ford. CNN.com. November 8, 2010.
- Will Masses Embrace Electric Cars Despite High Prices? Chris Woodyard. USA Today.com. November 8, 2010.
- GOP Critic: Don't Kill Climate Panel. The Wall Street Journal Online Blog. November 8, 2010.
- Has the World Already Passed "Peak Oil"? Mason Inman. National Geographic News. November 9, 2010.
- Controversial 'Cool It' Documentary Takes on 'An Inconvenient Truth.' The Wall Street Journal Online Blog. November 10, 2010.
- Peak Oil Finally Piquing Analysts? Bill Chameides. Scientific American. November 11, 2010.
- Chilly Climate for Global Warming Talks at G-20 Economic Summit. Lisa Friedman. Climatewire, Scientific American. November 12, 2010.
- Can Anything Serious Happen in Cancun? Bjorn Lomborg. The Wall Street Journal Online. November 12, 2010.
- EPA Issues Guidelines for Cutting Greenhouse Gases. Associated Press. USA Today.com. November 15, 2010.
- Can Social Scientists Ease the Nation's Rift Over Climate Change? Evan Lehmann. Climatewire, Scientific American. November 16, 2010.
- California's Destructive Green Jobs Lobby. George Gilder. The Wall Street Journal Online. November 16, 2010.
- Can Regions Rather than Nations Lead on Climate Change? Debra Kahn. Climatewire, Scientific American. November 17, 2010.
- New York State Begins Planning for Sea Level Rise. Nathaniel Gronewold. Climatewire, Scientific American. November 19, 2010.
- How to Get a Community to Support CO2 Storage. Christa Marshall. Climatewire, Scientific American. November 19, 2010.

- GOP Ready to Fight Over Global Warming. Steve Hargreaves. CNNMoney.com. November 22, 2010.
- As World Warms, Negotiators Give Talks Another Try. Charles J. Hanley, Associated Press Special Correspondent. USAToday.com. November 22, 2010.
- Experts Claim 2006 Climate Report Plagiarized. Dan Vergano. USAToday.com. November 22, 2010.
- Study Links Lower Carbon Emissions to Recession. Doyle Rice. USAToday.com. November 22, 2010.
- Bolder Climate Deal Needed to Close 'Emissions Gap,' U.N. says. Hilary Whiteman. CNN.com. November 24, 2010.
- U.S. Government Puts Offshore Wind on Fast Track. Christa Marshall. Climatewire, Scientific American. November 24, 2010.
- Climate Change Talks Hinge on "Green Growth," says De Boer. Marianne Lavelle. National Geographic News. November 26, 2010.
- Move Ball Forward at Cancun Climate Talks. Jonathan Lash. CNN.com. November 29, 2010.
- Cancun's First Goal: Do Better than Copenhagen. Bryan Walsh. Time.com. November 29, 2010.
- How to Change the Global Energy Conversation. Ted Nordhaus and Michael Shellenberger. The Wall Street Journal Online. November 29, 2010.
- Leaked Cables Show U.S. Pressured Saudis to Accept Copenhagen Accord. Lisa Friedman. Climatewire, Scientific American. November 30, 2010.